WORLD FLIERS ON PERILOUS TRIP

GLOBE CIRCLING SHIPS HOP OFF FOR GREENLAND

American Aviators Are Accompanied By Italian, Also Circling Globe, In Long And Hazardous Trip From Iceland—Got Away Under Excellent Conditions

(By The Associated Press)
REYKJAVIK, Iceland, Aug. 21.—The American round the world fliers and Lieut. Locatelli, Italian aviator, hopped off from here at 8:15 o'clock this morning.

The fliers passed the U. S. cruiser Richmond, on patrol about 70 miles off the coast from Iceland at 9:35 o'clock.

Lieut. Locatelli was leading his American companions, Lieut. Lowell H. Smith and Lieut. Erik H. Nelson, by five miles.

The weather was beautiful and flying conditions were excellent when the aviators set out for Greenland.

Lieutenant Nelson's plane was off two minutes later.

Lieutenant Smith, the flight commander, had been up all night recording weather reports and working out plans for the trip.

J. D. Farrier, prominent Wilson Man, walks into Jail Yard, Calls Youth To Window Of Cell And Puts Bullet Into Body, Then Surrenders To Sheriff

(By The Associated Press)
NORFOLK, Va., Aug. 21.—An elderly man, torn by grief and bent by sorrow, walked into the jail yard at Elizabeth City, N. C., about 9:30 o'clock this morning.

The man who did the shooting and who immediately surrendered to the sheriff, was J. D. Farrier, prominent resident of Wilson, N. C., and grandfather of the child who was the daughter of L. C. Blader, head of one of the biggest lumber concerns in North Carolina and widely known throughout this section.

"You can shoot me now if you want to," Mr. Farrier told the sheriff. "Somebody ought to have killed Swindell long ago, and since no one else did I tried to. I have been almost crazy since this thing happened. I have been planning to shoot Swindell for days. He is perfectly willing to talk about the shooting, and repeat that the little girl is the daughter of his only child, and that he loved her as his own."

Superior court is in session at Elizabeth City this week and Swindell's trial was set for today. At the hospital physicians said that the wounded man had nearly died to death, and that his recovery was doubtful.

Swindell, who is a wealthy retired booting works owner of Wilson, was released on $15,000 bail at noon today to await the result of Swindell's injuries. A number of Elizabeth City business men went security for the amount. He is charged with felonious shooting with intent to kill.

Postoffice Lock Boxes To Cost More October 1

Postmaster Frank D. Lumpkin this morning was officially advised by the Postmaster General that effective October 1st the rental charges on lock boxes in the Danville postoffice will be substantially increased. The ratio of increase is from 33 1/2 to 50 per cent, and is the result. Mr. Lumpkin said today, to the large increase in gross receipts at the Danville postoffice within the past year. The government appraises the box rentals, it seems, on the gross earnings of the office, the conclusion being reached that the more mail is handled, here greater is the value to the patron of his lock box.

The new schedule shows that the smallest boxes now costing 75 cents each quarter will go to $1. Boxes costing $1 will be $1.50; $1.50 boxes going to $2.00 and two dollar boxes being increased to $3. per quarter.

The receipts at the Danville postoffice last year were $20,000 in excess of the figure of the previous year, according to an approximation given by Mr. Lumpkin, this being the cause for the revised schedule.

Firemen's Ass'n. to Meet Next Year In Newport News

(By The Associated Press)
HARRISONBURG, Va., Aug. 21.—With Captain E. J. Lamb, of Harrisonburg, elected president and Newport News designated as the 1925 meeting place, the Virginia State Volunteer Firemen's Association continued its 38th annual convention here today.

The principal event on the day's program was the annual parade. Approximately 1500 firemen, representing forty companies, were in line and the streets were crowded with spectators.

James G. Bohlen, Newport News, was elected vice-president of the association. The following officers were re-elected: E. J. Hicks, Charlottesville, treasurer; E. J. Landis, Pulaski, secretary; L. E. Lookabill, Roanoke, state chairman; and Dr. H. W. Battle, Charlottesville, chaplain.

In his report to the association, Mr. Lookabill declared millions of dollars were lost last year through preventable fires and urged that support, be given educational campaigns for fire prevention.

MAN AVENGES ATTACK ON YOUNG GRANDDAUGHTER—SHOTS HER ASSAILANT

ENGINEER CRUSHED TO DEATH IN WRECK, WHILE FIREMAN IS SCALDED

(By The Associated Press)
CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 21.—Engineer John Donnell, was crushed to death and Fireman Lee Simmons was scalded when the engine of passenger train No. 12 on the Baltimore and Ohio turned over in the railroad yards at Mitchell Ind. None of the passengers were hurt.

The members of the Philadelphia National were on the train but they escaped injury. They were en route from St. Louis to Cincinnati, where they are scheduled to play today.

It was reported that only the engine and one coach left the track after going through an open switch.

DANVILLE POST TO MAKE FINAL CHECK FRIDAY

Meeting Called For 8 P. M., Friday Night To Go Over Convention Arrangements

Notices are being sent out today to every member of Danville Post No. 10, American Legion, to attend the monthly meeting to be held on Friday night at the Memorial Mansion at eight o'clock.

The regular meeting due on August 15th, was postponed until tomorrow in order that the Post might act intelligently on last minute matters on the eve of the annual convention which opens here next Monday.

Special reference is contained in the mailed notice to the importance of everyone being on hand as a final checking of convention plans will be undertaken.

Information received from responsible sources this morning was that all of the details for the convention have been taken care of and that all of the delegates are expected to arrive for the big meeting—probably the largest attended meeting the State organization has ever had.

Each of the local legionnaires is being sent a silk badge bearing the word "Welcome" designating the Danville Post and bearing the official emblem. This will readily distinguish all of the Danville legionnaires.

Post officials were busy today trying to locate a landing field for the convention. It was discovered yesterday that the landing field described as "excellent" in existing maps, which is on the Gardner farm, is this year under cultivation and cannot be used.

1 KILLED, ANOTHER NEAR DEATH DURING FALL OF PLANE AT LANGLEY FIELD

Smith De France, American Ace, Barely Alive, Unable To Tell Horrible Crash And Throw Any Light On Sudden Swerve—Stephen Bromley, Dead Man, Was On First Trip Up

(By The Associated Press)
NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Aug. 21.—Hanging onto life by the slimmest thread and unable to tell of the horrible few minutes yesterday afternoon when the airplane he was in fell into Back Bay, killing the second occupant of the machine, Smith J. De France, American ace who was piloting the plane, was prevented from throwing any light this morning on the mystery that surrounds the cause of the machine's taking a sudden swerve and plunging into the water.

Stephen Bromley, junior aeronautical engineer with the national advisory committee, was killed outright when the machine took its deadly plunge, suffering a broken neck when one of the rods snapped and caught him under the chin, throwing his head back and severing the spinal column. It was his first flight in an airplane.

Officials at Langley Field were still mystified this morning as to the reason for the plane falling. Those who saw the accident stated that it had gone up only about 1,000 feet when suddenly it hesitated for the barest fraction of a second and then took a nose dive into the bay.

Smith J. De France, as soon as the plane landed on her nose in the mud, Bromley and De France were found pinned in their seats. In taking the two men out of the plane, a marvelous feat was shown by Major De France, who was the first to reach the plane, and he was the first to reach the plane.

Boys, Age 11 And 19, Confess They Wrote Letter Demanding $8,000 Of Jacob Franks, Threatening Death Of Mrs. Franks and Daughter If Money Wasn't Paid—Decoy Package Caused Arrest

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—Two brothers, one eleven years old, the other 19, have confessed, according to the police, that they wrote a letter to Jacob Franks, father of the murdered Robert Franks, demanding $8,000 and threatening the death of Mrs. Franks and daughter if the money was not paid.

Earl Smith, 11, was arrested yesterday as he searched through a rubbish box for two decoy packages, left there in place of the money demanded in the extortion letter. He implicated his elder brother, Fielding, who admitted, detectives said, assisting Earl.

The letter instructed Mr. Franks to place the money in $2 and $5 bills in baking powder cans and throw them from an elevated train into the rubbish pile.

The boys said they had read of the case of Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb, University graduates and decided with their grammar school education they could improve on the former plan. Officers said Jacob Franks, father of the kidnaped and slain Robert Franks, for whose slayers, Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb, Mr. Franks has advocated death, today asked mercy for the 11-year-old and 19-year-old brothers.

Mr. Franks today had a long talk with the boys who confessed they had written the letters demanding $8,000 or threatening death to Mr. Franks and daughter. He told them they were misguided in trying to seek money in such a manner to open a grocery, the motive they had admitted actuated them.

BIG AREAS SHIFT ON PLANET MARS BEFORE GAZE OF SCIENTISTS

Mrs. W. L. Firesheets Passes To Reward

Mrs. Saluda Adeline Firesheets, one of the oldest members of Moffett Memorial Baptist church died at 11:45 o'clock last night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. T. Francisco, 845 Lee street after an illness of two months. Her condition became critical several days ago, recurring heart attacks being the cause of her death.

The funeral service will be held at 3:30 o'clock Friday afternoon from Moffett Memorial church and will be conducted by Rev. C. J. D. Parker. Mrs. Firesheets was 69 years of age and native of Halifax county. She was married there to W. S. Firesheets who died four years ago, moving to Danville four years ago and living in North Danville until she was taken ill. She soon joined Moffett Memorial church and throughout her active years had been an earnest promoter of church work revered by her congregation and others for her exemplary Christian character.

She is survived by two children Charles L. Firesheets formerly this city, now of Reidsville and Mrs. Francisco, also eight grandchildren. She also leaves a brother, G. C. Cox of this city.

Astronomers Declare Vast Sections Are Continually Moving, Large Telescope Reveals—Study Temperatures and Atmospheric Conditions Of Planet

(By The Associated Press)
FLAGSTAFF, Ariz., Aug. 21.—Areas that may be continents, vast sections of marshland or prairie, the remains of what are believed to have been the oceans that once divided the surface of the land, are continually and regularly shifting on the planet Mars before the gaze of scientists at Lowell Observatory here, it was revealed today.

When the air is steady, according to Prof. Earl Slipher, photographic expert and astronomer, he captures the planet's appearance on very sensitive photographic plates. While the question of the habitability of Mars is a live one with practical astronomers here, the experts are not concerned whether men or beings like men are on Mars going about daily rounds of duties and pleasures like those on earth.

These men are attempting to determine the temperatures and the conditions of atmosphere on the planet in an effort to ascertain the possibility of human habitation there, they pointed out.

The work is progressing with the aid of the Coolidge radio-meter, whose measurements of electrical currents are reported to be the most sensitive achieved by man, less than a billionth of an ohm.

Professor Slipher believes sensational results may be obtained from the observations during the recession of Mars in October, rather than at the height of the planet's proximity to Earth next Saturday. Intensive study since March at the institution here, regarded by astronomers as "headquarters" for observation of Mars because of its locality, has enabled the scientists to establish the time of seasonal changes on the planet corresponding to those of the Earth.

The astronomers have long since learned the yearly waxing and waning of polar caps as the supposed water vapor is deposited as snow or ice at the north and south poles, and when Martian spring comes, melt beneath the more direct rays of the sun. The melting of the ice caps is accompanied by a progressive change in appearance of the territory surrounding the caps. Streaks develop like lines on a photographic print immersed in the developing solution. These streaks and areas darken. The ground color of Mars as seen in a telescope is a bright ruddy hue.

WATERMELON TIME MEANS LESS DRINKING OF BOOZE

(Copyright, 1924, by The Bee)

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 21.—In the watermelon belt South, the police are almost out of a job and the bootleggers are on the verge of starvation. All because watermelons and corn liquor won't mix.

Unless you have a three ply, cast iron stomach you can't eat the meat of a watermelon and wash it down with the white lightning brewed up in the Georgia mountains. Watermelons and liquor together are worse than poison.

At the same time, there is nothing that appeals to the southern palate more than watermelons, and in the case of a negro this hankering assumes the degree of a passion. As a consequence everybody has quit drinking during the watermelon season and taken to eating "Georgia rattlesnakes" (Tom Watsons) and other famous varieties of the melon patch.

With everybody always and constantly sober, nobody could successfully demonstrate at Tilly Post, N. Y., when sham bandit gang, attempting to hold up train, is repulsed.

The greatest sufferer of all however, is the poor, hard working bootlegger. During the best seasons, good Georgia corn liquor brings $6 to $8 a gallon, and seldom can double run or "slightly aged" corn be bought for less than $5. How, with the whole South eating watermelons, corn of the very best grade has reached the amazing level of $2.30 in the country districts and $3.50 in Atlanta. The bootleggers are thinking of asking Congress to do something about it.

When alcohol touches the pulp of a watermelon it seems to change that juicy red meat into asubstance like India rubber. "The melon pulp just curls up and petrifies," an interneat Grady hospital, where all the liquor poisoning cases are taken. The hospital records show only a few instances of people who have died from mixing melons and liquor, but the number who have been tied into a box knot is quite large.

This fact being generally known the demagogue has been coked until the watermelon season is over. Mean-

PEGGY'S FATHER RUNS HER A CLOSE SECOND

On this side you have Peggy Joyce who has become one of the most famous women of the world thru her stirring experiences in matrimony. Men of great wealth have been attracted by her. What is her peculiar charm for them?

By STEPHEN HANNAGAN

FARMVILLE, Va., Aug. 21.—Peggy Joyce has been married four times (or is it five?) but her father runs her a close second. George Upton, the Barber of Farmville, has been married three times.

And Peggy looks much like her father. At 51, he has a small mouth, bright blue eyes and skin of baby pink.

Upton's first wife and her baby died. Then came Peggy's mother. Peggy's mother, Peggy was the only child of that union which was dissolved by divorce. Peggy's mother has married again and is living in Virginia. Old residents of Farmville say she was a very pretty woman.

The Uptons live in a three-story, 12-room frame house surrounded by trees and shrubs. There are three children, Lucille, 20, Cecil, 11, and a five-year-old boy.

Lucille was educated to teach at the state normal school here, but she has aspirations to follow Peggy on the stage. At present she is with her sister at Atlantic City.

"I don't want her to go on the stage," her father told me, "and I made her promise that she wouldn't."

Lucille toured the country with Peggy last year, but her sister has tried to dissuade her, offering her two years' schooling in Europe if she would give up her ambition for the footlights.

"I don't want her to go on the stage, but if she insists I shall help her all I can," Peggy says.

Both attended a party recently. "Offer her a cigarette—she won't smoke it," was Peggy's challenge to other guests. "Offer her a drink—she won't take it."

Here in Farmville, Lucille is immensely popular. She stood high in for a post-graduate course and her classes. Her father enrolled her for $40 for her tuition. "It looks as though I have lost that money," he says. "I don't think she'll return to school."

Many here recall the childhood of Peggy. "She was just an ugly little kid with a pug nose when she came here," one of her youthful admirers told me, "but she was likeable and attractive."

"She knew more of the world and its ways at 10 than most women do at 40," another told me.

"We used to play house together," another young man told me. "She was sweet and had a beautiful singing voice. There was something different about her, but I can't define it."

Peggy left here when she was 16 to 17 to make her home with her maternal grandmother. Shortly after that she began to make matrimonial history.

Just before her marriage to Count Morner she returned to Farmville for the first time in 14 years. All the girls from the state normal school and the fellows from Hamden-Sidney Boys College came to town to get a glimpse of her.

One of Peggy's boyhood beaux is a strapping big fellow and wears Fifth Avenue styles on Main street, where he is successful in business. But neither he nor her other youthful admirers met her at the station. They are married now.

SAYS PEACHES WILL BEING GOOD PROFITS

RICHMOND, Va., Aug. 20.—Luscious, red peaches ripening under the August sun will place many dollars in the pockets of Virginia peach growers this season is the opinion expressed today by Henry M. Taylor, agricultural statistician, who declared that the Virginia crop, while always small in acreage, gave promise of being a bumper one.

"Around 600 cars of 550 bushels each will be shipped from the state," he said, "which is more peaches than Virginia has produced in the past four years. The first car was shipped from Crozet only last Saturday and the major portion of the crop will move from that point."

"Virginia peaches are finding a market between the Georgia and Delaware seasons and consequently good prices have resulted. The excellent weather conditions, favorable to full ripening and deep coloring, have enhanced the value and attractiveness of the fruit for fancy selling."

Mr. Taylor stated that the acreage of Virginia peaches had not been appreciably changed in several years.

COUPLE HAVE 100 CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN

REUTE, Germany, Aug. 19.—Daniel Falger and wife possess 37 children between them. Daniel, 62 years old, was a widower with 21 children when his eyes fell upon the widow Hedwig Paschl, who is the mother of 16 youngsters and six years older than Daniel.

When the wedding breakfast was served and noses were counted, it was found that the immediate family of children and grandchildren numbered over 100.

CUTICURA HEALS ITCHY TETTER

Formed Scales. Then Pimples. Could Not Help Scratching. Lost Sleep.

"The trouble I had was tetter of the face. It formed white scales that would itch and burn. After the scales would go away pimples would come. The breaking out itched so badly that I could not help scratching it and that made it worse. I could not sleep for the itching and burning."

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and purchased some. After using them about a week I was better and in three weeks was healed." (Signed) Miss Aileen Thompson, Sassafras, N. C.

For every purpose of the toilet and bath, Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum are excellent.

In New York

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—All the "smart cracks" aren't uttered by humans. Parrots have gone in for new and lighter lingo.

A friend relates many of the interesting quips of his bird.

When the bird is covered for the night, he invariably bawls out, "Good night, boys."

"Do you like it?" is the question he asks as the family sits for meals, especially when there is company.

Two children were playing on a fire escape, overlooked from the parrot's cage. "Watch your step," was the admonition he shouted.

If the door bell rings the bird cries, "Come in. Who is it?"

He refuses to leave his cage on any pretext. The last time he was taken from the cage he was given a dealer in Brooklyn has a parrot that has been his sole companion for many years. The bird, a rare species, is worth a fortune. But the man of dwindling wealth probably would starve before parting with "Booby."

Each night, as the dealer walks about his shop peering his does a fond good night, the parrot mournfully and jealously asks "You love Booby? Indeed, the aged dealer does."

Alexander Dolowitz, nattily dressed two-homesize tried to break into jail but failed.

He took a long taxicab ride and then refused to pay on the grounds he had no money.

The man, Dolowitz, was powerless to sentence Dolowitz because the taxi driver refused to appear as a prosecuting witness when he found Dolowitz was anxious to be jailed.

Spite work . . .

A warrant for the arrest of Robert Allen, a prisoner in Sing Sing, had been filed.

Allen asked officials who filed it. He found it was James Lewis Ravine in prison himself for embezzling $100,000. They all talk it over behind Sing Sing's wall this week.

CALL TO COLORS SEPT. 12 TO BE ISSUED TO DEPICT SPEED OF MOBILIZING NOW

RICHMOND, Va., Aug. 21.—Every able-bodied Virginian of military age will be asked to answer a call to the colors for one day on September 12, "Defense Day," when a test mobilization of all the units of the Virginia National Guard will be held.

The demonstration is to depict the progress of mobilization, the dependence of military units on the community in which allocated, and the contribution in personnel which could be expected from each community in event of a national emergency.

Scenes will be enacted in each Virginia county closely resembling the hectic activity incident to the mobilization of the national army during the World War.

For the purpose of classifying the "one day" volunteers and assigning them to the various units in the national guard, Citizens Local Mobilization Committees, corresponding to the local boards of Selective Training and Service, these war days, have been appointed. These committees will also have charge of all defense day plans in their respective counties and, acting with the military committees, will have the observing vote in saying what kind of observance program will be held.

Plans for the mobilization tests in the counties where no military units are located was announced today by Lieutenant-Colonel Joseph LeMasurier, acting adjutant-general of the National Guard, who made public the text of a letter forwarded to those who have been appointed chairmen of the civilian committees.

Here is the text of the letter:

"Sir: Your attention has been drawn to the fact that arrangements are being made for a Voluntary National Defense Test next month, Friday, September 12, the eighth anniversary of the reduction of the St. Mihiel salient by the American Expeditionary Forces in Europe in 1918.

"In the United States, with its traditionally small active regular army and National Guard, and an Organized Reserve consisting only of a framework upon which to construct additional active organizations in time of great need, the efficiency of an actual mobilization for defense in case of national emergency will depend upon the energy, public spirit, and patriotism of our citizens. So, too, the success of the projected voluntary test of the plan for defensive preparation developed pursuant to the National Defense Act passed by Congress in 1916 and amended in 1920, will depend upon the public spirit of our citizens.

"The plan is not militaristic in conception, neither would it militate against the economical system of preparation for national defense. To that end it is essential that every county in the state co-operate to make the projected test successful.

"No military organization, Regular National Guard, or Reserve, is stationed in your county; but the citizen of the county may nevertheless cooperate in the test of September 12.

"(a)—By arranging for a meeting or several public meetings on September 12, features of which may be brief addresses outlining the purely defensive preparations of the county and emphasizing the purpose in view of that day, that is a test of the existing defensive plan and a patriotic demonstration, the latter to include prayer, music, provision for recreation and amusement, and possibly a parade of civic organizations, school children, and citizens generally.

"(b)—By affording citizens who are qualified to render military service in time of national need an opportunity to demonstrate their readiness to render such service, should occasion arise, by enrolling themselves as One Day National Defense Volunteers, for the Defense Test of September 12, 1924.

"The Governor of the State of Virginia has instructed me to inform you that, reposing special trust and confidence in your patriotism and public spirit, he has appointed you on the National Defense Test Committee for your county. The Committee, including yourself, consists of three members, as will be noted in the enclosed list of committees appointed for various counties. It is the desire of the governor that the chairman, as designated for each county named in the list, call a meeting of this committee without delay and arrange for a patriotic demonstration and voluntary one day enrollment as outlined in paragraphs a and b of this letter.

"The Commanding General of the Third Corps Area, United States Army, Baltimore, Maryland, will be glad to answer inquiries respecting the general plan for national defense and the purpose in view for September 12. It is suggested that your committee inform the Corps Area Commander as soon as practicable of your plans for September 12 and on that date send him a statement descriptive of the realization of your plans.

"In conclusion, the governor desires me to express to you his confident expectation that due to the efforts of your committee the county it represents will render enthusiastic public support to the patriotic plan to be tested on September 12.

"Sincerely yours,

(Signed) Joseph LeMasurier, Lt. Col. and Acting Adjutant-General.

Prior to the foregoing letter full plans had been made for the organization of Citizens' committees in counties where military units are located, stated Lt. Col. LeMasurier today. Each Citizens' Committee will be assisted and advised by a Military Committee, consisting of officers of the Regular Army, National Guard or Reserve officers, he said.

One business that keeps on going

How often do you hear of a "Standard" pump's going out of business? Crooks may come and hucksters go, but once a "Standard" pump is in business it wears out before it quits. The public always supports the enterprise that gives unquestioned service.

One can't help being impressed with the number of retail stores he sees constantly changing hands, closing up, selling out. It is a sign that something is wrong. In almost every case it boils down to the basic fact that the service they rendered did not satisfy the public.

One realizes then the tireless effort required to keep a product like "Standard" Gasoline in the position of leadership it has held since the earliest days of motoring. In the face of keen competition it has not only held its place, but is constantly gaining ground. Behind this popularity lies ceaseless work of research and experimentation, always aiming to improve quality. The service it renders has satisfied the public.

GEN. DAWES TO CONDUCT "DRIVE OF BRASS TACKS" AVOIDS MOVIE CAMERAS

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Charles G. Dawes, Republican candidate for vice president, will make known his attitude toward trade unions in his speech at Augusta next Saturday in which he will open the Republican campaign in Maine. He announced this between trains at the Grand Central station today in response to the question of one of several newspaper men who sought to interview him on the rear platform of the car on which a few minutes later he left for Westbrook, Conn.

Mr. Dawes posed several times for the "stills" graciously enough but refused to leave his car platform to go into the waiting room of the Grand Central station to permit the moving picture men to grind their cameras at him. The movie men had erected two great arc lights in the waiting room in anticipation of filming the candidate.

A persuasive crank grinder finally prevailed upon Mr. Dawes to walk to the center of the big waiting room, where the glaring lights had been set up. Close to 2,000 persons, anticipating a sight of Mr. Dawes and drawing a number of actors and actresses of the film world to the scene, awaited the candidate's approach, rallied tumultuously about the spot.

Mr. Dawes, flanked by the jubilant movie men, walked up to the edge of the cleared space and, with one of the screen's prominent leading men and a woman, the prominent leading woman posed under the lights conspicuous in their make-up. Mr. Dawes came to a full stop at the edge, surveyed the scene with flashing eyes and returned abruptly on his heel and returned to his car.

"They're not going to make a movie actor out of me," the one-time general remarked tersely on the edge of the cleared space, "but I am glad to be included as an unknown dramatic character in a feature picture major character in a feature picture."

Dawes said his refusal to pose might jeopardize the "movie" vote.

"I don't want that kind of a vote," he replied. "I will stand on the record of my speeches, the record of the party and common sense."

(By The Associated Press.)
ALBANY, Aug. 21.—A campaign of brass tactics and "bombast" was reiterated by Charles G. Dawes as he traveled eastward on his first campaign trip as the Republican candidate for vice president.

Such an intention was announced by the candidate in his acceptance address Tuesday night at his home in Evanston, Ill., and was emphasized by him today in discussing the speech he will make at Augusta.

Mr. Dawes feels that voters want a discussion of issues delivered with definiteness and force rather than any exposition of generalities in my opinion. "The American voter," he said, "is tired of the shouting from their candidates for national office and I intend to give it to them." He was the first to sum up his intention.

Believing that the more to such treatment of the issues than does prepared speechmaking, he does not intend to write out his speeches in advance. In fact, before leaving Evanston yesterday he had prepared for the delivery at Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 29 on the agricultural question and will speak there for the first time. He prepared his Augusta address in part several days ago.

Mr. Dawes' trip to Maine will be interrupted for a day and a half visit with his friend and business assistant, Walter H. Wilson, of Chicago at Westbrook, Conn.

Columbia Pauses To Honor Memory Of "Uncle Jagers"

(By The Associated Press.)
COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 21.—For a three minute period Columbia, the capital city of South Carolina, will pause this afternoon to honor the memory of a negro.

"Uncle Jagers," 93 years old, negro missionary to the poor, is to be buried and all business will suspend during the funeral ceremonies, by proclamation of Mayor W. A. Coleman.

"Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus will be the text of the eulogistic addresses to be delivered this afternoon by the two officiating ministers, one a negro and the other white. The text taken from Philippians 2:5, was the only one used by 'Uncle Jagers' during his 73 years of preaching.

Born a slave on the estate of Lemuel Estes, in Chester county, South Carolina, in March 1831, Charles Jagers began preaching the gospel in his own way at the age of 18 as an ordained preacher in the African Methodist Episcopal church. From that time he continued preaching and collecting from his 'white friends' donations for them a negro mission and an old folks home. He yearly put aside as his 'salary' a single cent.

The funeral of 'Uncle Jagers' will take place at 3:30 this afternoon. Some of the most prominent citizens of Columbia will act as honorary pall-bearers. Rev. H. R. Murkison, D. D., executive secretary of the Columbia Theological Seminary, will be the white minister assisting at the funeral.

In his proclamation, Mayor Coleman says of 'Uncle Jagers': 'Few, if any of his kind and time are left and it is doubtful if we shall again have the opportunity to do honor to one of his race who so richly deserved it.'

"It would be particularly fitting that while people in Columbia, the capital city of South Carolina, should recognize publicly his virtues and demonstrate the respect in which he was held, that our people here and those elsewhere, both white and black may know that a character such as his has been appreciated regardless of color or station in life."

NOVEL PUNISHMENT METED OUT FOR PETTY LARCENY IN CHINA

TSINGTAO, China, Aug. 21.—The park police here demonstrated a new and effective mode of punishment for vandals recently when two men were caught stealing flowers.

The officers took the culprits to the main boulevard and made them kneel. To the prodding of police rifles they were made to shout to all passers by why they were being thus treated.

For 15 minutes they were compelled to shout "I took what did not belong to me and promise never to do it again," while they were made to hold the stolen flowers aloft.

An impromptu elopement of six girls and boys has thrown the legal machinery of Missouri and Kansas into a tangle. For the mammas and papas have stepped into the marital life of the triple entente. When plans were laid to run away from Missouri to Olathe, Kas. and be married, there were but four. On the way, however, two more lovers were found and they joined the wedding party. A sleepy justice of the peace at midnight performed the three ceremonies. Now two of the boys would ask a divorce. But Kansas authorities say it will take more than "under age" to sever the knots. So while family lawyers seek a way out, the sextet has agreed to return to school this fall. M. Herriot emphasized that arbitration was the great principle established at the London conference and asserted that France could gain much for "it could need a great deal of optimism to believe that France in the future could again get the majority of votes which enabled her to withdraw the Ruhr."

The fliers are heading for Frederiksdale near Cape Farewell at the southern tip of Greenland, a hop of approximately 825 miles, according to the plans which were adopted after bad ice and weather conditions in the north Atlantic had forced them to abandon their original intention to make the shorter flight to Ang-Mag-Salik or to another harbor twenty miles north of there, which later also was found to be icebound.

The American fliers arrived at Reikjavik from Hefin Hornafjord August 6, intending to continue their flight to the east coast of Greenland, within a few days, but reports on weather and ice conditions which were unusually bad forced them to wait.

DENY M'COY WILL ENTER PLEA OF GUILTY MONDAY

(By The Associated Press.)
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 21.—Attorneys for Kid McCoy, former pugilist, charged with the murder of Mrs. Theresa W. Mors here August 12, today were ordered to file an attack on the range of evidence which District Attorney Asa Keyes believes he has welded around the 31 years old fighter.

While they would not divulge their plans, they took occasion yesterday to deny categorically that these plans provided for a plea of guilty of McCoy when he appears before Judge Charles S. Crail Monday. The former motion picture actor and boxer was arraigned yesterday on the murder charge, as well as on three charges of assault with intent to kill and four charges of robbery growing out of a shooting affray staged in and near Mrs. Mors' automobile shop several hours after her death.

Before his attorneys could ask for a postponement of the plea until Monday McCoy shouted out in answer to the murder charge: "I did not!" To the other charges he was indifferent.

Meanwhile arrangements were made for his examination by additional defense attorneys, although there had been no repetition of the Tuesday which caused police to believe that the "Kid's" mind had cracked under the strain of the shooting and his subsequent arrest.

The body of Mrs. Mors it was announced by Albert A. Mors, her former husband, and heir to her $125,000 estate, will be sent tomorrow to her mother's home in New York.

Evidence unfavorable to the "Kid's" defense, according to officials, was revealed yesterday when $5,000 worth of jewels, which Albert A. Mors declared were taken from his wife, were recovered by police from Mrs. James Thomas McCoy's sister. However, Captain of Detectives Herman Cline indicated that no further charge would be placed against McCoy who is now under indictment for murder, assault with intent to murder, and of an injury to Loughran's left wrist robbery.

Arguments In Leopold-Loeb Case Resumed

"one week alibi" upon which Leopold and Loeb had agreed.

(By The Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—The State today continued its oratory summing up the testimony on which it hopes to obtain a death sentence for Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb for the murder of Robert Franks, while the defense prepared to begin its forensic effort to induce Judge John R. Caverly to fix imprisonment as the penalty.

The summing up of the prosecution has turned from the tactical discussion of the legal aspects of responsibility mitigation and turpitude, with which it opened to dramatic eloquence as it graphically rehearses the killing of the 14-year-old youth and pleads for the gallows for his slayers.

Joseph P. Savage assistant States attorney, who denounced the defendants as millionaires' sons and university graduates, said that they were "dastardly cowards" had scarcely begun his argument when adjournment was taken yesterday. After his conclusion, the address of Walter Bachrach is scheduled to open the defense's oratory. He will be followed by his brother Benjamin, who is not expected to finish before the end of the week. The last of the arguments will be between Clarence S. Darrow, veteran chief of defense attorneys, and Robert E. Crowe, States' attorney.

Find Skeleton Of Man Hanged 1855

LOGANSPORT, Ind., Aug. 21.—The skeleton of John Hubbard, only man ever hanged in Wabash county for murder, has been found at Wabash, La. Hubbard was hanged in 1855 for having murdered an entire French family consisting of the father and mother and five children, who sought shelter at his home one cold winter night. He crushed their skulls with a hammer and buried their bodies beneath his home. When he was hanged Dr. Fred Ford, a young practicing physician of the county, found the body. He preserved the skeleton in alcohol and concealed it in an attic above his office. It was discovered when the building was razed.

Tobacco Exports From This Nation Show An Increase

(Special to The Bee.)
RICHMOND, Aug. 21.—The quantity of tobacco exported from the United States during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1924, amounted to approximately 557,000,000 pounds as against 445,000,000 pounds last year. 447,000,000 pounds in the year preceding the war, and 335,000,000 pounds in 1900, reports the Federal government.

In addition to the leaf tobacco exports, which were valued at $166,000,000 during the passed fiscal, the report declares that the United States exported 12,161,441 pounds of cigarettes, valued at $22,000,000, over $2,000,000 worth of smoking and chewing tobacco in various forms, and more than 40,000,000 of stems, trimmings, and scraps, which had an export value of $1,500,000.

"An enormous increase," the reports concludes, "in the production and consumption of cigarettes in Europe during the passed few years, particularly in Germany, Belgium, Sweden, and France offers an encouraging outlook on the future demand for American tobacco. This increase has already given an impetus to the production of cigarette tobacco in other parts of the world, particularly in southeastern Europe, with which American exporters of cigarette leaf tobacco will have to compete."

PREM. HERRIOTT READS REPORT ON CONFERENCE

French Premier Will Tell Parliament of Results of "Dades" Conference.

(By The Associated Press.)
PARIS, Aug. 21.—Premier Herriot was enthusiastically acclaimed by his supporters and booted by the communists and deputies of the extreme right for five minutes when he faced the chamber shortly after five o'clock this afternoon, and began reading his hour-long declaration on the results achieved at the International Conference in London for launching the Dawes reparation program.

(By The Associated Press.)
PARIS, Aug. 21.—Premier Herriot was prepared to go before Parliament today with the results achieved at the London conference for launching the Dawes reparation program. The premier's statement will be delivered to the legislators after submission to the cabinet for approval and the chamber of deputies is expected to begin its debate at once.

It appears probable that a vote of confidence will be forthcoming by Saturday morning, which would enable the signature of France to be affixed to the London agreement of Aug. 30, the stipulated date. This program, it is believed, will give ample time for the interpellations announced up to the present and for the ten other speakers who have put their names down on the president's blotter as intending to air their views regarding the London negotiations.

The contention of former Finance Minister Klotz that the agreement is a treaty and consequently should be ratified after, instead of before its signature, has gained no more than a passing mention in the chamber and is unlikely to be seriously considered. Its acceptance would entail adjournment of the debate and ratification until the October session and the deputies are said to feel that any further postponement in settlement of the reparation question would be badly received by the country.

The premier will not be called upon to face any loud music in the senate, although Senator Emery has not named an interpellation. The proceedings there will probably resolve themselves into a vote on a congratulatory motion put forward by Senator Mullins-Lacroix, president of the foreign relations committee, and Senator Hubert, the debate being reserved for the fall session.

Whether by coincidence or design, the nationalist newspapers this morning print lengthy extracts from an interview with former President Millerand which is in appearance Saturday in the Revue Hebdomadaire. In the course of this, the ex-president announces that he is ready to resume political life and re-states his creed, not without considerable criticism of the present office-holders of whom he says: "Dictatorship by a handful of men in the chamber is a negation of the republic."

Danville Post To Make Final Check Tomorrow

used. E. F. Diggs, secretary of the chamber of commerce, was trying to locate one this morning so that positive information could be wired to the Hampton Roads Post this evening.

John J. Wicker, Jr., of Richmond, Department Commander and the full corps of state officers, are expected to arrive here on Saturday afternoon. Other members of the executive committee, twenty persons in all will be here on Monday morning in time to attend the first meeting of that committee which will take place in the Masonic Temple at 3 o'clock Sunday evening. It is expected that the eight convention committees will be appointed at that meeting so that they may be announced at the opening session of the convention which will be held with the Legion Auxiliary at the Majestic theatre at ten o'clock on Monday morning. This is the only joint meeting on the programme and all subsequent meetings of the Legion and the Auxiliary will be held separately in the two Masonic Temple auditoriums.

Many of the delegates will begin arriving on Sunday morning, especially those which will stage fights to win the 1925 convention. By Sunday night it is expected that a large proportion of the legionnaires will be here. Reservations, however, are not coming in very fast and it is expected that the same situation which prevailed at Fredericksburg last year, will be noted—scores of delegates arriving without previously making requests for reservations.

The fireworks which will be a feature of the Tuesday night programme and which will be given after Alvin Owsley makes his address have already arrived. This display will be even more elaborate than that which was given by the local textile corporation last Christmas, and which was voted as the finest ever seen here. The display is to last for forty-five minutes.

The first social event of the convention will be on Monday night when the American Legion Auxiliary of Virginia will hold a reception to the delegates and legionnaires attending the session. This will be held in the Masonic Temple.

Interest already centres in the election of a departmental commander. Seven names of men from different sections of Virginia are being heard and booms are being started for each one of them. Among the seven is the name of Waverly H. Cousins, commander of the Danville Post though he seemed to be unaware of this signal attention today. The election of a successor to J. J. Wicker, Jr., will not take place until the last day of the convention and by that time it is quite likely that the field will have narrowed down to two or three candidates.

Mr. Wicker today stated that indications pointed to the largest legion meeting ever held in Virginia. "I believe there is going to be a great attendance and lots of enthusiasm," he said speaking from Richmond. He pointed out that the parade feature will be novel since at no other convention has one been staged. Every Virginia post has been ordered to come to Danville with its standards and the post flags will give a colorful touch to the parade which on Tuesday evening will terminate at the Fair Grounds where Alvin Owsley is to make his address.

Commander Wicker indicated that he was greatly impressed by the liberal advertisement which has been given the convention this way and by the pre-convention work done by the Danville Post.

NEW HATS FOR FALL.

The fall hat is ready to make its bow to the waiting world of women, and here are three of its most subtle interpretations.

These models, you will notice, each present a new line in millinery and are actually new styles.

The high-crowned mushroom shape of black beaver cloth with a moire ribbon stick-up and two birds' heads for trimming is the shape that is taking the place of the cloche.

Direct from Paris is the black satin model with the smashing black velvet bow and the upturned brim. There is a suggestion of the Directoire here which will probably develop with the season.

The upturned brim of the beaver cloth model gives something of the effect of the tam o'shanter, but it is a little more tailored and much smarter. The broad ribbon bow across the back adds to the youthfulness.

TRY AGAIN TO GET INSURANCE FROM GERMANS

San Franciscans Make Another Effort to Collect "Debt."

By L. C. OWEN

(Copyright, 1934, by The Bee)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—Former Kaiser Wilhelm, who has been charged with about every variety of offense on the calendar, is shortly to be charged with still another one—welching.

San Franciscans who lost more than half a billion dollars' worth of property in the earthquake and fire in 1906 and who were further cheated out of partial restitution of their losses when several big German insurance companies refused to pay claims against them, will back almost a score of years in presenting new allegations of moral shortcomings against the former Kaiser.

Testimony of the alleged welching is expected to be brought out before Superior Judge Frank Deasy here at a special hearing beginning tonight to take sworn statements which will be filed with the alien property custodian at Washington.

The Kaiser, who is the former Kaiser but also most of the Hohenzollern family were heavy stockholders in the three largest German insurance companies—that refusal to pay losses to San Franciscan policyholders in these companies was at the dictation of the former Teuton royal family.

Following the disastrous earthquake and fire in San Francisco in 1906, American, British, French, German and Spanish companies paid their losses promptly, dollar for dollar, although in the process many of them became bankrupt. Not so the German companies. Out of more than a dozen Teuton insurance companies, only three met claims against them in full and they went into bankruptcy before they could liquidate more than half their obligations. Other companies included the three in which it is alleged that the Kaiser and his family were stockholders.

Threats to sue, and several suits actually filed, were made by the San Franciscans against the German companies, but they had any assets in this country and the hopelessness of going to Germany and suing them there resulted in the attempts to collect being abandoned.

Entry of America into the world war and seizure of German property in this country by the Alien Property Custodian, most of which is still held, however, offers a new opportunity to San Franciscans to get back the money they lost.

Approximately $1,000,000 of funds and property belonging to German insurance companies, which local records show refused to pay up after the 1906 disaster. These funds still are hoarded in Washington and it is to secure court judgments against them that sworn testimony which will be played in the hands of Thomas W. Miller, present alien property custodian at Washington, is to be heard here tonight.

While there they were in the city, they were charged with having any assets in this country and the hopelessness of going to Germany and suing them there resulted in the attempts to collect being abandoned.

President Will Rake Hay Today

(By The Associated Press)

PLYMOUTH, Vermont, Aug. 21.—Kept indoors most of yesterday by one of the most severe rains of the summer, President Coolidge was prepared to get some exercise in the hay field.

The president is turning his attention to official business. Mr. Coolidge yesterday accepted an invitation to speak in Baltimore at the unveiling of the Lafayette statue there September 6—LaFayette-Marne day.

The president has on his program an engagement to help Ed Blanchard rake hay. During a visit with Mr. Blanchard who is a neighbor of Mr. Coolidge, the president learned that sickness in his neighbor's family had delayed him in getting in his crops. He volunteered to help.

THE VERY LATEST!

Just the dress to wear for early Fall without a topcoat! This design, the pattern for which cut in size, bust measure, is one of the very latest. Notice that it is trimmed with buttons all the way down the front and that it boasts one of those smart little cape backs. The cape and collar cut all in one (a very new innovation) and if you don't want the cape you can cut it off as shown in the diagram.

For a dress to wear every day, and if you're very slim, one of the new plaid woollens is suggested with the cape collar of plain material. Or, the collar might be reversed, if you so desired. Made entirely in dark blue flannel or twill, it would be very smart with red bone buttons and the cape lined with red tulle.

For afternoons, make it of black satin with glass or white buttons, and line the cape with white satin. Silk crepe, with only contrasting bindings, is also good.

In the 36-inch size, 3 1/2 yards 40-inch material is required. Price 15c, stamps or coin (coin preferred).

Elks Hold Final Business Session

(By The Associated Press)

RICHMOND, Aug. 21.—Virginia Elks, meeting here in annual convention, held their final business session this morning and devoted the rest of the day to pleasure.

A luncheon was given the visitors at 1 o'clock after which one of the city while others attended the baseball game between Richmond and Portsmouth, of the Virginia League. A dance was on the evening's program.

Grand Excelsior Ruler Price, Columbus, O., of the national organization, failed to arrive in the city for the convention, owing to illness in his family.

The Elks went on an "Excursion" down the James River last night.

Preparing For Va. Field Trials

(By The Associated Press)

ROANOKE, Va., Aug. 21.—Numerous sportsmen and dogs from Roanoke and vicinity are expected to attend the annual Virginia amateur field trials in Hanover county on November 10 and 11, according to C. W. Williams, president of the organization. There will be two stakes—the members' all-age stake and the members' derby stake.

Among those dogs from this section expected to start in the all-age stake are "Radio Flash," owned by W. H. Oakey, of Salem; "Eugene's Mohawk," owned by C. W. Williams, of Roanoke; and "Lucky Dorian," owned by C. W. Williams of Roanoke.

More Interest In Rail Shares Seen

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Publication of July earnings reports, now beginning to appear, is expected in some quarters to revive general interest in the rail shares which have been lagging since the Van Sweringen "Nickel Plate" merger was outlined and since the sharp return of industrial prices began to absorb most of the market's attention.

So far there has been little definite information on the trend of last month's earnings. The grain movement in the west and heavy traffic building from the improvement in business, however, may be reflected to some extent in the July report.

LID LIFTED IN GERMANY ON RICH WHIPPED CREAM

BERLIN, Aug. 20.—The people of Berlin are today reveling in whipped cream. During the war, and for a time thereafter, this luxury of the table was unknown in Germany, so much so that the young generation did not know what the words meant.

But recently it was found that there was enough milk and honey to satisfy a revived demand, so all restrictions were removed at the request of the confectioners.

The demand for the frothy, white delicacy has exceeded even the fond hopes of the most optimistic dealers. The German dairies have not been able to supply the wants of their customers, and as a consequence great quantities of cream are shipped in daily, chiefly for Berlin, from Holland and some of the Scandinavian countries.

Whipped cream sells in this city for about 30 cents a cake.

The Tangle

An Intimate Story of Innermost Emotion Revealed in Private Letters

LETTER FROM LESLIE FRESCOTT TO RUTH BURKE, CONTINUED

The hours wore on, mother becoming more and more excited. I called up Karl's house almost every half hour. At last, about one o'clock at night, I tried to make mother go to bed. She would not, however, but she insisted that I should lie down for a while.

I must have dropped asleep, for about seven o'clock the next morning she came to my room in a very excited manner and said:

"Leslie, look here what the morning papers have to say about Alice." My heart sank clear to my feet. Had Alice really made good her threat and killed herself?

She certainly had not, instead, she had many a hold on my heart. They had been married late in the afternoon and left for New York.

Just what Alice told Karl I cannot imagine, but I know him well enough to know that whatever she told him, if she threw herself upon his pitying charity, he would do anything she asked him.

The clipping from the paper read: "Late yesterday afternoon Miss Alice Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Graves Hamilton, was married to Mr. Karl Whitney very quietly. It will be remembered that Mr. Whitney and Miss Hamilton issued invitations to a large wedding a week or two ago, but owing to the sudden illness of Miss Hamilton's father, the invitations were recalled."

"The young people were married at the rectory of the Church of the Epiphany, at about 10 o'clock. For a moment Mr. Whitney was seen, as they were leaving the rectory, and he said that the hurried marriage was decided upon yesterday, for although Mr. Hamilton was gaining daily, it would be quite a while before he would be able to stand the excitement of a large wedding. 'Naturally,' said Mr. Whitney with a smile, 'neither myself nor my wife cared to wait for an indefinite period.'"

The wedding of Mr. Whitney and Miss Hamilton unites two of the largest fortunes in Pittsburgh. Mr. Hamilton is one of the great steel magnates of the world, and Karl Whitney was the heir to not only his father's immense fortune, but those of his two uncles. He is reputed to be worth thirty million.

"It has been rumored that Mrs. Whitney was so pleased with her visit abroad that she would like to make her home there. If this is true, it will mean that another great American fortune will be taken to England."

Ruth, doesn't that sound just like one of our blatant, snobbish, bowing-to-wealth notices of a rich marriage? Sometimes I feel as though Americans, with their worship of money, are thoroughly disgusting. If I should say this to Alice, she would think I was jealous, but I certainly am not.

I'm very happy to think that I am able to earn my own living with my little shop, if necessary, and that if Jack and I do make an out-of-pocket, oh, Ruth, I cannot think of living without Jack—that we both will have to work and worry and plan to put little Jack through college and live as respectable and self-respecting citizens.

Mother just broke down and cried as I read the clipping which I have quoted to you.

"I wish I had never sent Alice to England," she said.

Danville Back Home For Week; New Faces in Line-Up

LOCALS OPEN SIX-DAY SERIES TODAY, NEW MEN WITH TEAM, LADIES DAY

Several new men will make their initial appearance in a Tobaccoists uniform before the home supporters of the club when the locals take the field against High Point this afternoon at 4:15 at Stonewall Jackson Park. Arnett, property of Rochester for a part of this season, and who has been signed by Murphy, will make his debut at short stop in the place of Collier Myers, who has been released. Ben Smith, former Winston pitcher, first baseman-outfielder, will perform at first base in the stead of George Resco, long time favorite of local fandom. DeShond, a pitcher, has been signed to replace Shoaf, who strained a ligament in his pitching arm in Winston Tuesday.

The Tobaccoists will be at home the remainder of this week and High Point will offer the opposition. The first three days of next week, Winston comes to Danville for a series after which the locals go to Durham, thence to Greensboro and return home September 4 for the final home series of the season with Raleigh as their guests. The season closes with the following series when Danville meets High Point on their home ground. Double headers will be played Labor Day but in continuation of the custom in former years games will be played in only three cities in the circuit instead of alternating and playing games in every town in the circuit. The Leafs will meet Greensboro at Cone Park for the Labor Day event and probably many fans from Danville will make the trip over to the Gate City to witness the contest.

Winston goes to Durham and Greensboro moves over to Raleigh today. The locals return home in fifth place after dropping four straight games to Winston. The Pointers split even in their four game series with the Capitals which ended with a shut-out by Floss yesterday. With the addition of new members to the club and dropping of old probably the Tobaccoists will come out of their slump and show their teeth to the slipping Pointers. This afternoon will offer an opportunity for local followers of the game to form first hand opinions to the probable finishing position of Murphy's Aggregation.

HIGH POINT IS SHUT OUT BY ROSS' WORK ON MOUND

HIGH POINT, Aug. 20.—Ross shut out the local sluggers here this afternoon and won 7 to 0 although he gave up ten hits. It was the Raleigh pitcher's game throughout. On numerous occasions the Herndon crew had men on bases with one or more out but were unable to come through with hits when they meant anything. Pitcher Hunter has been released. Wood, an Ashboro boy, who has been playing in the Kitty League, was at second yesterday for the locals. Allen, a pitcher, worked out in a road uniform with the local team today.

BARNES TROUCE CUBS IN DOUBLEHEADER

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—Casey Stengel returning from a honeymoon today, was largely responsible for the double victory of the Braves over Chicago 2 to 0 and 5 to 0. He was responsible for both runs in the opener and his homer accounted for three of the runs in the second game. Both Genevick and Barnes pitched masterly ball, the former allowing three hits and the latter six.

Manager Killifer, Third baseman Friberg and second baseman Gramham were banished from the game by Umpire Rieger for disputing decisions.

St. Louis, Aug. 20.—St. Louis took both games of a doubleheader from Philadelphia today 3 to 1, 13 to 10. Excellent pitching by Dickerman, supported by bunched hits in the first inning of the first game gave the Cardinals a victory. Philadelphia's only score was a homer by Cy Williams. There were six double plays, two by Bottomly unassisted.

The second game developed into a slugfest match in which both teams used three pitchers. The scores:

BROOKLYN SWEEPS SERIES WITH PITTSBURGH (By The Associated Press.)
 PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 20.—Pittsburgh took three games in a row from Brooklyn, winning the final contest of the series today 3 to 2 in 11 innings. Doak held the Pirates to six hits, three of them coming in the first inning, when the home club scored its runs. Kremer tightened up after Fournier poled a homer into right in the second inning and the Dodgers were unable to get a runner on second base until the 8th inning. Brooklyn tied the score in the ninth when Neis, running for Griffith scored on Taylor's three bagger. The winning run was scored when Brown doubled and scored on a sacrifice and an infield out. The score:

SAVANNAH WOMA NGOLFER FAVORITE AT ASHEVILLE

(By The Associated Press.)
 ASHEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 20.—Mrs. J. G. Smith, Savannah, golf star, was the general favorite in the Asheville country club annual women's invitation golf tournament, following her victory over Mrs. F. C. Ford, Charleston, S. C., player, in the second round of match play today.

The match, which here took more than 18 holes, left the victor two up, and was one of the closest in the day's playing. Both contestants did excellent driving and their work on the green was superior to that of any other pair in their flight. Mrs. Smith's advantage, however, lay in her approach, a department of the game in which she excels.

FLOWERS-GRUBB BOUT ASSURED

(By The Associated Press.)
 FREMONT, O., Aug. 20.—Final approval for the ten-round no-decision boxing match here tomorrow night between Harry Greb, middleweight champion, and Tiger Flowers, Atlanta negro, was given today with the signing of a certified check for $4,000 by Fremont boxing commission. The check covers the money guaranteed Greb. The advance sale tonight amounted to $22,000. Bronson said, both boxers are reported to be in peak condition, having finished training today.

GREENSBORO AND DURHAM IN TWELVE INNING DRAW

DURHAM, N. C., Aug. 20.—Greensboro and Durham battled to a 12-inning draw here this afternoon when darkness found the score knotted at one all.

Rube Crews, on the ridge for the visitors, allowed not a single safe blow until the sixth inning when Irbly got a single, was sacrificed to second, went to third on a passed ball and died there.

In the third inning the Carrollmen scored their only run when Zitzke hit to win the game. Malonee hit to center went to second when O'Hara errored the ball. Lennox attempted to sacrifice and Crews threw the ball over Cox's head and Malonee scored. With Lennox on third the sequence play was attempted but Lennox apparently failed to get the signal and was caught between third and home.

DUNDEE FORFEITS HIS FEATHERWEIGHT TITLE

(By The Associated Press.)
 NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Johnny Dundee, veteran of thirteen years in the ring, today lost a century with his featherweight title because he can no longer make the 126-pound limit. Dundee, who said he could continue to fight in junior lightweight ranks, announced his decision to state athletic commission, which he asked to take custody of the featherweight crown until a new wearer is found.

The commission also announced it had lifted the suspension of Harry Greb, world's middleweight champion, and Kid Norfolk, negro pugilist, after similar action had been taken by the Massachusetts ring authorities, who suspended the two boxers after an unsuccessful match in Boston last April.

CONSLY'S BODY IS EXPECTED

WINCHESTER, Va., Aug. 19.—The body of Luther K. Altner, American consul general at Vancouver, B. C., who died in a hospital there last Friday, is expected to arrive here Saturday for interment in Mount Hebron cemetery.

Mr. Altner, who was 44 years old at the time of his death, had been in the government service for nearly thirty years.

Surviving are three sisters, Mrs. W. A. Sale and Mrs. Raymond Forney, of this city, and Mrs. B. A. Bowman, of Westernport, Md.

TWINS TAKE FINAL GAME OF SERIES FROM LEAFS BY THE SCORE OF 5 TO 4

WINSTON SALEM, N. C., Aug. 20.—By a one run margin the Twins took the final game of the series with Danville here this afternoon, score 5 to 4, in a game called at the end of the eighth inning on account of rain and made a clean sweep of four game series the whole of which was featured by the superb work of the Winston mound corps. In the first three games the visitors gathered a total of eleven hits and in today's affair were able to connect seven times.

The Leafs jumped on Lloyd, who started for the locals, and made all their runs in the first two innings. During the second Lloyd was derelicted and Bernice Thompson sent to the mound. Thompson gave up just two hits in the remaining six and a third inning.

Danville started with a bang. Treffy first up, received a life on second with a sacrifice. Staley traced a single into left field and Treffy cantered across the dish. McDonald shot a single into left field but was forced at second by Smith. Collier Myers, who will be released in the morning cracked a triple and Staley and Smith came in. Regan ended the inning in the usual manner by whiffing.

In the second before Lloyd could be wanked the visitors scored another. Cochlin opened the frame by shooting a single into right. Harris laid down a sacrifice. Treffy went out pitcher to first. Wilson singled and by Thompson, ending Danville's scoring for the day.

In the fourth the Twins started to work on Harris. Albert Thompson opened the cano with a single. Bernice Thompson followed with a double. In right-center field Albert counted. That ended the scoring for that inning.

In the following inning the Jacksomen continued their assault on "Cudge" with the result that two more runs trickled over the board. After two men were out Harris was yanked and McWhirter was sent in. The tying and winning runs were scored off him in the sixth when Ammons, who had been in the game since the first inning, doubled and Ammons brought home the tying marker. Hamby walked and Albert Thompson singled to right and Long scored the winning run.

Summary—Stolen bases: Wilson, Regan. Sacrifice hits: Wilson, Harris, Pulliam, Lewan, Standaert. Two-base hit: B. Thompson. Three-base hit: Myers. Hits off Lloyd, 5 in 3 innings; off Harris, 4 in 2-1/2 innings; off McWhirter, 5 in 3-1-3 innings. Struck out by: Harris 1, by Lloyd 1, by Thompson 2. Bases on balls: off Harris 1, off McWhirter 2; off Thompson 1. Hit by pitched ball: Wilson by Thompson. Left on bases: Danville 8, Winston 6. Time of game: 1:40. Umpires: Saurie and Lewis. Attendance: 422. Winning pitcher: Thompson. Losing pitcher: McWhirter.

In the fifth inning Standaert made a nice stop on Smith's grounder. Monroe injured his finger in the seventh inning while at bat when he fouled a pitch off his bat.

In the same inning after Pulliam had singled Lewan sacrificed and called for a sacrifice bunt. Jackson vigorously protested the decision and was banished.

Smith, who has been signed to supplant Resco at first base, went hitless.

AMERICAN POLO TEAM ANNOUNCED

(By The Associated Press.)
 NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Selection of the American polo team which will defend the international challenge cup against Great Britain in a series of matches starting September sixth at the Meadowbrook club, Westbury, N. Y., was announced today by the United States polo association.

The team a new "big four" which will seek to carry on where its famous predecessors left off is composed of J. Watson Webb, number 1; Thos. Hitchcock, Jr., number 2; Malcolm Stevenson, number 3; and Devereaux Milburn, back.

The substitutes were also named. They were Eric Pedley, sensational star who helped the U. S. club to Los Angeles with the national junior championship recently, Earl W. Hopping, who has been playing in London until lately, Robert S. Strawbridge, Jr., of Philadelphia.

Three from Meadowbrook. This trio all are members of the Meadowbrook club. Stevenson, who belongs to the Rockawa, hunting horn, has played on an international team but as a seasoned player and veteran of man a national tournament. Milburn, who has played on the five cup teams, starting in 1909 and Hitchcock, a sensation of the 1921 series, form the backbone of the quartet. Both are ten goal men. A lefthander played number three on the last international team but has been moved up to number one to replace Lewis E. Stoddard, who has been withdrawn from international competition. Webb is rated at nine goals.

Hopping and Strawbridge both are rated at 8 goals while Pedley is especially about the same rating, although the last official list handicaps him at six.

The cup team will have its first official practice match as such tomorrow when it lines up against a picked four composed of Strawbridge, Pedley, Harry East and F. H. Prince, Jr., at Westbury.

The British team which has included in only light practice since its arrival several days ago, plans its first public practice match Friday when it will oppose an American club team composed of Elmer Belmont and J. C. Cowdin. The Brits expect to take the field with Major Kirkwood at number one, Major Philip Harcourt, number 2, Major Hurdall number 3, and Louis Lacey, back.

ONE DEAD, SECOND NEAR DEATH OF STARVATION

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Miss Mary Ann Reddy, seventy years old and blind, who had half a century with her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Dwyer, 65, in a small house in Flushing, was in a critical condition today at the Metropolitan hospital, where she was taken several days ago after she was found starving in her bed. Dwyer died of starvation on Sunday, and physicians said Miss Reddy is so weakened of malnutrition that she may not recover.

For years both sisters, with only a few pennies to make ends meet, lived on the edge of starvation. Recently their money gave out and they were either too proud or too weakened to appear for help. When their plight was discovered by neighbors two live chickens were found perched on the foot of Miss Reddy's bed, but the sisters were too weak to kill and cook them.

Dodgers Win From Pirates; Indians Defeated By Boston

ROBINS MAKE DESPERATE BID TO REACH THE TOP

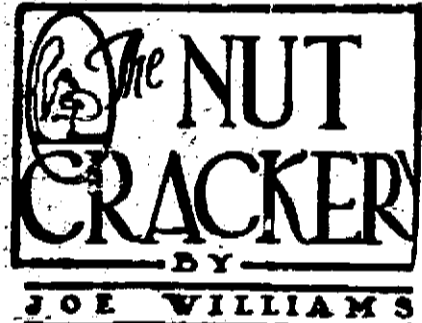

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Rounding the last turn for the wire, the Brooklyn Dodgers, hard-riden by Uncle Robbie, are making a desperate bid to overhaul the league leading Giants and the Pirates, in second place.
The Dodgers took the last game of the series from the smoky city aggregation 3-2 yesterday, after eleven innings, hardfought, for their third successive victory, and went into first place in the league standing, passing the Cubs, who dropped both ends of a double header to the tallied Boston club 2 to 0, 5-0. The Brooklyn club has come through in twelve of its last fourteen starts, has taken six of the last 7 games on the road, and is now only six and one half games behind the Giants, who remained idle yesterday.

The Cardinals took a new lease of life at the expense of the Phillies, beating the Fletcher crew in both the curtain-raiser and the night game, 3-1, and 13-0, but are so far in the ruck that only a miracle can bring them into the money.
Only one game was played in the younger league, Boston nosing out Cleveland in a well-played contest, 5-4. Flagstead, hero of the game, made four hits, a sensational running catch and instrumental in scoring three runs. The other game scheduled, St. Louis and Philadelphia, was postponed because of rain.

U. S. Polo Team To Get Its First Practice Today

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—The first official practice of the American polo team, defenders of the international challenge cup, takes place today at Westbury Long Island, when the new "big four," composed of J. Watson Webb, number 1; Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., number 2; Malcolm Stevenson, number 3, and Devereaux Milburn, back, take the field against a strong combination of Robert E. Strawbridge Jr., Eric Pedley, Harry East and F. H. Prince, Jr., Strawbridge and Pedley and Earl W. Hooping were named as substitutes on the cup defenders.
Strawbridge and Hooping are both eight goal men, with Pedley rated officially at six goals.

Milburn, a member of last year's teams, and Hitchcock, of the 1921 series, are both ten goal men. Webb, a left hander, rated at nine goals, played at number 3 on the last international team but has been moved up to number 1, replacing Louis Stoddard, who has withdrawn from international competition. Stevenson is also rated at nine goals. These headliners, however, will not figure in the international matches as the international matches are played on the "flat."
The first public practice match of the British team is scheduled for Friday when they will play against an American team, composed of Elmer Boeseke, Jr., Morgan and Raymond Belmont and J. C. Cowdin. The Britishers will line up with Major Kirkwood, number 1; Major Philip Hornby, number 2; Major Hurdall, number 3; and Luis Lacey, back.

DO YOU KNOW BASEBALL?

QUESTIONS

1. Is there any particular system used by the umpires in determining what is an infield fly?—E. C. G.
2. If the umpire, with first and second base occupied, and only one out, declares a fly ball an infield fly, only to have the left fielder handle the ball and muff it, does the original ruling of an infield fly, which automatically retired the batsman, stand?—C. V. B.
3. Baserunner interferes with fielder in handling a ground ball. The umpire rules baserunner out. It was apparent that the fielder was ready to take a step back, since the runner came into contact with the runner.
- Does an umpire in rendering a decision on an interference play give any consideration as to whether or not the interference is intentional?—D. M. T.

ANSWER
1. Calling an infield fly is merely a matter of opinion or judgment on the part of the umpire. Any fly ball which the umpire believes can be handled by an infielder with first and second, or first, second and third occupied, immediately becomes an infield fly.

2. The original ruling stands. Once the umpire calls an infield fly, the batsman is automatically retired. It makes no difference that the left fielder made the play on the fly and then muffed.

3. At no time can the umpire give any consideration to the intent on an interference play. The fielder always has the right of way and it is up to the baserunner to avoid him. If the interference happens it must be called whether or not it was intentional.

For the Game's Sake

By LAWRENCE PERRY

(Copyright, 1924, by The Bee)
NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—It has been a custom—not an invariable custom, but none the less a frequent habit—of champion prize fighters to take their referees with them when on tour. In this way adverse decisions are prevented and prestige insured.
The frequent elopements which Bill Tilden had with the umpire in the doubles match which he and his protégé, young Weller, played against Tott and Pare, give, whether justly or unjustly, an impression that the court champion is no less jealous of decisions than are some of our star fighters.

Evidently Big Bill's personality prevailed over the pertinacity of the man in the high chair, for the umpire at length resigned his seat and gave way to a substitute. Still later a complete outfit of linesmen were summoned to the court where the champion and his young satellite were disputing themselves.
Tilden, of course, is a great tennis player, the greatest, thinks the writer, that ever stood upon a tennis court and he is a fine fellow too. But in his capacity as a champion he stands for something more than himself and his individual viewpoints. Of should so stand.
Primarily he is invested with responsibility as an example to the younger tennis players of the land and above all men should hold up the hands of the tennis law. In other words, baiting of officials, whether done in a pedagogical or cantankerous manner, is not supposed to be good form in any amateur sport, and in a professional game such as organized baseball the umpire is protected from players who disagree with him by rigid rules with significant penalties attached.

The human eye is fallible and often enough an umpire or linesman may be in error. But hardly more often than the player himself, who in advancing for a stroke of a racket has no time to tell whether a ball has nicked a mark or whether it has not.

A player naturally becomes nervous when he feels an umpire is not calling him right and if it appears the arbiter is making mistakes with sufficient frequency to lead to suspicion concerning the quality of his eyesight, then it would seem to be beyond human control to check protests.

But where such decisions are a matter of opinion and the arbiter's eyesight is as good as the players' and his honesty unquestioned—it would seem that the good sportsman's role is clearly indicated. In other words let him play the game without more in the unbecomingly desecrated smiles that Tilden so inimicably.

Although still in the second and third rounds the national doubles championship competition had the interest of the crowd, with Miss Wills, of Berkeley, Calif., woman singles champion, playing with Richards in a effort to capture from Mrs. Hurd, of Berkeley, Calif., the title that they are playing through to defend. It will be Saturday before they can come together in the final and meantime the champions had a hard contest in prospect with Mrs. E. E. Cole, II, of North Andover, and R. E. Schlesinger, of the Australian team, today, while Miss Wills and Richards were drawn against Miss Edith Signourney of Boston and Jacques Brugnon, of the French Davis cup team.

Maybe the reason some women get catatonic at times is because their husbands growl at them.

Australians Find Stiff Opposition In Gaining Finals

(By The Associated Press.)
BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 21.—The men of Australia, Gerald Patterson and Pat O'Hara Wood, who have stroked their way to the semi-final round of the national lawn tennis doubles championship tournament at the Longwood cricket club today found a team that has held the title three times opposing their progress to the final round, W. M. Johnston and Clarence J. Griffin of San Francisco, winners in 1915, 1916, and 1920 and candidates this year for the honors of Davis cup defense in doubles.

The other semi-final had the olympic and Wimbledon champions Vincent Richards and Francis T. Hunter, of New York, opposed by Robert G. Kinsey and Howard O. Kinsey, of San Francisco, in their effort to add the third of the world's premier doubles title to their seasons record. This match promised team play of a high order.

Although still in the second and third rounds the national doubles championship competition had the interest of the crowd, with Miss Wills, of Berkeley, Calif., woman singles champion, playing with Richards in a effort to capture from Mrs. Hurd, of Berkeley, Calif., the title that they are playing through to defend. It will be Saturday before they can come together in the final and meantime the champions had a hard contest in prospect with Mrs. E. E. Cole, II, of North Andover, and R. E. Schlesinger, of the Australian team, today, while Miss Wills and Richards were drawn against Miss Edith Signourney of Boston and Jacques Brugnon, of the French Davis cup team.

Greb and Atlanta Negro Will Meet In Ring Tonight

FREMONT, O., Aug. 21.—Fremont was filled with fight fans today, waiting for the going to call Harry Greb world's champion middleweight boxer, and Tiger Flowers, Atlanta, Ga., negro to the center of the ring tonight for their scheduled ten round no-decision bout, the most important sporting event ever attempted here in order to gain the title Flowers must win by a knockout or be fouled.

Both men are in the pink of condition and each is confident. Despite efforts by the Fremont ministerial association and other church organizations to stop the match, originally set for August 14, promoter Ray Bronson reported seat sales of more than $22,000 early today, and predicted a sell out. Sale of general admission tickets is expected to increase the receipts by at least $10,000.
Greb has been guaranteed $6,000. If the receipts go above $30,000 he has the privilege of accepting 50 per cent. of the receipts over $15,000.

SPECIAL N. C. COMMISSIONER TO LEAGUE OF NATIONS

(By The Associated Press.)
GENEVA, Aug. 20.—Henry S. Henry, bearing a signed and sealed document from Governor Morrison of North Carolina, appointing Mr. Henry special commissioner for North Carolina arrived in Geneva today. League of Nations officials are somewhat puzzled over how to receive him.

Mr. Henry has not yet presented his credentials but it was said today the league officials were going to welcome him as a representative of America, anxious to learn about the league and particularly as to the governor's document with the words: "I do hereby confer on him all rights, privileges and powers useful and necessary to the just and proper discharge of the duties of appointment."

Grandstand Gaff

THE High Point baseball club arrived here early this afternoon to open a three-game series with the Tobacco cities. The game to start this afternoon at the usual hour—4:15. Ladies' Day rolls around again and with many new faces in the line-up, a better attendance should be on hand. Manager Murphy this morning had not decided just who would pitch, although he may sent DeShond to the mound.

Team Undergoes Shake-Up.
The locals are undergoing a shake-up, unexpected by anybody, even the players. Resco has been released, having been replaced by Ben Smith, who will be seen at the initial corner this afternoon. A new infielder, Arnett, late with the Rochester Internationals, is expected to arrive today. He is to replace Collie Myers, who Murphy expects to release as soon as the new man arrives. Myers is a classy fielder, but is weak with the willow, although he occasionally strikes a batting spree. Yesterday he got two out of four, one for a triple.

DeShond In Shoof's Place.
Shoof, with a sprained ligament, will be out of the game for some time, having been shelved in lieu of DeShond. DeShond is said to have won twenty-four straight games with an independent club at Harrisburg. Pa. Murphy has looked him over and says he is very promising and should be a success in this league.

Ernest Finished For Year.
Catcher Bill Ernest, is out with an injured hand, having split a finger in a recent game. Ernest is not expected to get back into the game this season. Manager Murphy sent a hurry call to Catcher Harrison, whom he farmed out to an Appalachian League club but a telegram from Harrison also said he was suffering from a split hand and would also be out of the game for about ten days longer. Hence, Coshlin will don the mask from now on unless a new receiver can be landed. This leaves the hot corner open. Either Regan, or perhaps Murphy himself may play there.

After More New Men.
Murphy is busy sending telegrams for still more players. He realizes that a weak hitting team is a handicap, though the pitchers have held up unusually well, considering the circumstances.

ROCKY MOUNT MERCHANTS PLANNING EASTERN TOUR.
ROCKY MOUNT, N. C., Aug. 20.—The merchants of Rocky Mount are planning a "Get Acquainted Trip" into the territory of eastern Carolina for the middle of September, according to a statement issued at the Chamber of Commerce here under auspices of which organization the tour will be made.

SPECIAL VENUE FOR KENDALL CASE TO ARRIVE FRIDAY (By The Associated Press.) SPOTTSYLVANIA COURT HOUSE, Va., Aug. 20.—The special venue of fifty Charlottesville citizens, drafted for prospective jury duty in the trial of Charles B. Kendall, under indictment for first degree murder, was held up by the death of Dr. Robert L. Powell, will arrive here Friday morning.

It is expected that with the arrival of the outside venire a jury will be readily seated and the trial speeded up. Twenty-nine witnesses have been summoned by the commonwealth and sixteen by the defense. Both sides, however, reserved the right to call other witnesses should developments in the case warrant.

LYON CO-OPS There has been a report circulated that I have been employed by the Public Auction Warehouse Company, I wish to state that any such report is as false as it is absurd. Money would be no inducement for me to turn my back on my friends and an association that I believe to be based on principles of justice and fairness to all.

While I have put in an application for a position with the co-ops and it's up to the officers and members to accept or reject my application, and it matters not which course they may take, it will not effect or change my faith and good will towards the co-ops and their organization.

Should the association employ me, then I expect to render service that will entitle me to the salary I may receive.

BRISTOL BURNING UP LEAGUE BRISTOL, Va., Aug. 20.—The Bristol club of the Appalachian League won its 13th and 14th games out of the last 17 starts by taking a double header from Kingsport today. The victories places the State Linnets five and one-half games ahead of Knoxville, second place club and winner of the first half. Bristol finished at the tail-end of the first half of the race.

When McKnight and Craven arrived at the farm today, Stutts showed McKnight a letter which he had received from Harry P. Greer, of Statesville attorney for McKnight and some words ensued. According to Deaton's report. This occurred on the back side of the house, according to Craven. Then he and McKnight walked around to the front of the house and a fusillade of shots rang out and Stutts fell dead. McKnight died about an hour later. He fired several shots with a .45 calibre pistol after he was wounded, said Craven.

Double Homicide At Mooresville

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Aug. 20.—G. Locks McKnight, prominent business man of Mooresville, N. C., and Grover Stutts, a tenant on McKnight's farm four miles from Mooresville, were shot to death late today in a pistol and gun duel between the two, according to information brought to Charlotte tonight by H. P. Deaton, editor of the Mooresville Enterprise.

The double homicide occurred at the farm house in which Stutts and his family lived. W. P. Croven, who accompanied McKnight to the farm and who was an eye witness to the shooting was unable to state which one of the two fired first, though several shots were fired by each, he said, according to Harry P. Greer, of Statesville attorney for McKnight and some words ensued. According to Deaton's report. This occurred on the back side of the house, according to Craven. Then he and McKnight walked around to the front of the house and a fusillade of shots rang out and Stutts fell dead. McKnight died about an hour later. He fired several shots with a .45 calibre pistol after he was wounded, said Craven.

MORNING STOCK LETTER

(Thomson & McKinnon)

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—In a big market such as we have now, there are going to be many rapid changes—traders going from one stock to another, some reacting one day all of them reacting. If you have been in the habit of calling for an explanation for these various moves and expect to get explanations in the future, you are likely to be disappointed because there will not always be one other than these which anyone can formulate with a little imagination.

I expect still higher prices but it is well to bear in mind that each point advance now increases the likelihood of more violent reactions.

Cool Eyes Watched Murder

Here is a new picture of Miss Florence McKinney, 19, who sat at the wheel of an automobile on a lonely road near St. Joseph, Mich., while her sweetheart, Emil Zupke, strangled to death Miss Cora Raber, whom he had also promised to wed. The picture was taken of Miss McKinney in the county jail at Benton Harbor, Mich. It gives a remarkable facial study of the girl showing the cool set eyes and stern mouth.

Cotton Spinning Activity Declines

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—Cotton spinning activity showed another slight decline during July as compared with June, the Census Bureau's monthly report today showed.

Active spindle hours for July totaled 5,157,779,726, or an average of 136 per spindle in place, compared with 5,336,491,848, or an average of 131 per spindle in place in June this year and 7,135,765,590 or an average of 191 per spindle in July last year.

Spinning spindles in place July 31 numbered 37,786,464 of which 28,710,359 were active at some time during the month, compared with 37,809,946 in place June 30, of which 29,216,486 were active at some time during June and 37,397,331 in place July 31 last year of which 34,237,387 were active at some time during the month.

The average number of spindles operated during July was 22,697,499 or at 60 per cent. capacity on a single shift basis, compared with 24,422,392 or at 64.6 per cent. capacity during June this year an 432,557,966, or at 87.3 per cent. capacity during July last year.

Active spindle hours in cotton-growing States for July numbered 3,298,668,278, or an average of 192 per spindle in place, compared with 3,393,850,05, or an average of 193 per spindle in place in June this year and 4,185,228,973, or an average of 254 per spindle in place in July last year.

WALL STREET OPENING

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Stock prices moved irregularly higher at the opening of today's market with the best buying taking place in the industrials. White Motors advanced 1 1/4 and U. S. Steel common, Baldwin and other standard industrials improved fractionally. Southern Railway touched a record high for all time at 69 1/2, but some of the other dividend-paying rails were heavy.

The main price movement continued upward through the early dealings although several popular issues fell back on profit taking. Additional new 1924 highs were established by Marine Corporation, Foundation International, Reynolds Tobacco B and Nash Motors, the gains ranging from fractions to two points. Air Reduction advanced 3 points, Lima Locomotive 1 1/4 and Atchison, Locomotive and Dupont, were among the many stocks to climb a point or more. Mack Truck dropped 1 3/4, American Can 1 1/2 and Kennecott Copper and United Railways investment preferred 1 each. Foreign exchanges opened firm.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

(By The Associated Press)

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 21.—The cotton market had a quiet opening, with first trades 8 to 10 points higher in sympathy with Liverpool. Prices improved a few points additional in the early trading. October reaching 25.52 and December 25.60, or 12 to 14 points above the previous close. Shorts having covered freely in yesterday's market, the technical position was not so good and prices soon settled back to about a level with yesterday's close and there appeared to be a lack of definite trend.

Cotton futures opened steady.

TEACHES CANARIES TO SING LIKE THE NIGHTINGALE BIRD

(By The Associated Press)

BREMENHAVEN, Germany, Aug. 21.—By use of the phonograph records, canary birds have been taught to sing like nightingales. August 20, a canary of Bremenhaven, who raises canaries as a past time, begins to drum the song of the nightingale into the ears of the little birds almost the minute they are hatched by keeping a record running all day long and often half the night.

When the little singers are six or eight weeks old, Mummio places them in a cage near real nightingales and they are not permitted to hear the singing of any other birds. Eventually when the canaries begin to sing they quite naturally follow the notes they have always heard.

It takes 5000 bees to weigh a pound, but one bee can make you sit down like a couple of tons.

The wild rumor that bobbed hair is going out of style has ceased to be a hair-raising story.

HIS EXCLUSIVE METHOD SECRET OF SUCCESS

With His Method and Prescription Glasses Dr. J. D. Butler has Brought Relief to Thousands

It is the life work of this man to correct impaired vision and its train of evil. "The remarkable increase in the use of glasses," said this scientist, "should not raise any apprehension that the eyesight of the race is suffering deterioration or that civilization and modern life are weakening a formerly perfect organ. This fear is unfounded. More glasses are worn because the eye's needs and its relation to the brain are now understood to a degree undreamed of even three decades ago. The study of eyesight—technically called optometry—has progressed by phenomenal strides, vying with the modern phases of surgery."
